ABOUT THE EVENT

Sharda School of Nursing Science and Research is organizing an event on the topic “Values, Rights, Duties, and Responsibilities of Citizens” on 03.04.2025.

The main aim of this event is to know the rights, values, duties, and responsibilities of citizens and to help individuals understand their role in building a strong, fair, and progressive society. It enables people to be aware of the rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution, allowing them to live with dignity, freedom, and equality. Understanding values and duties helps individuals develop a sense of moral and social responsibility towards their country and fellow citizens. It encourages respect for others, promotes unity, and strengthens democratic values.

OBJECTIVE

The objectives of the event are as below: -

- To spread awareness about the constitutional values, rights, and duties of every citizen.
- To educate students and the community on the importance of being responsible citizens.
- To promote respect for law, discipline, and equality in society.
- To encourage active participation of students in social awareness programs.
- To strengthen the understanding of individual roles in contributing to nation-building.
- To develop a sense of social responsibility, unity, and respect among the audience.
